PERF 105/Fall Semester 2014

INSTRUCTOR: Jane Cox
2226 Pearson Hall  294-9766
Office Hours:  MWF : 10:00-11:30  TR  9:30-11:00
jfcox@iastate.edu

August 28—We begin
September 4—New trends in Theatre Design
September 11—Building a Resume
September 18—Auditions for Gala Performance on November 15
September 25—Preview of Spring Awakening
October 2—No class/tech week
October 9
October 16—Talk back for Spring Awakening
October 23—Preview of Crimes of the Heart
October 30—No class/tech week
November 6—Stand-up and Improv
November 13—Talk back for Crimes of the Heart
November 20—Preview of Christmas Carol
November 27—Thanksgiving Vacation
December 4—No class/Tech week
December 11—Usually a discussion of the semester
Final exam: Thursday, December 18 at 2:15 p.m

Learning Outcomes:

This is a noncredit class that has a changing course content from semester to semester.

Pinpoint areas of interest in the Performing Arts and supply either guest artists or faculty members to discuss them. Examples of such areas include creation of a resume, basics of ballroom dance, preparing for a career in the business side of theatre, getting the first job, etc.

Conduct a preview of each ISU Theatre production as well as an open and honest talkback with the director, cast, and crew.

Illustrate at the end of the semester something you have learned or discovered in course work. Examples are monologues, scenes, a choreographed dance piece, a design model, etc.