In addition to that the student will be honing their skills as artists to aid in the communication of ideas.

Course Objectives:

• To gain an understanding of a designer’s vocabulary
• To train an artistic eye
• To hone artistic skills of sketching and painting to serve a communicative purpose
• To understand the physical and psychological effects of color line and texture
• To understand the basics of creating color line and texture
• To understand the basics of script analysis as an informant to the design process

Required Text: There is no text for this class. You will however need a folder or binder to organize multiple classroom handouts.

Required Supplies:

• Binder or Folder to keep all classroom handouts organized
• Sketch Book. A fat one. No smaller than 8.5x11 no larger than 11x14. Please make sure it has perforated pages. You will be tearing out your work to hand it in. I am not lugging everyones book upstairs to my office!
• Drawing pencils. Medium to soft leads only. (F, HB, B, 2B etc. hardness of lead. NO H leads!)
• A good hand eraser. (Artgum or pink pearl) a pencil top eraser will not get you through this class.
• Additional art supplies may be needed as the class progresses.

Required software:

• There is a Blackboard page for this course. You have been invited to this blackboard via your IASTATE email address. This is the only email address through which the instructors of this course will contact you. Make sure you check this email address at least once a day to stay updated on information concerning Design 1 class.
• There is a Drop Box for this class. You will be invited to this Drop Box via your IASTATE email address. Information for this course will be added to the Drop Box on a daily basis and you will also be asked to upload photos to this Drop Box as part of your assignments.
Grading:

The exercises and projects in this class will each count for the overall grade. The grading criteria for each of these areas will be evaluated from the following: attendance, participation, work completed, and evaluation during critiques by students/instructors and overall progress of work throughout the semester.

Attendance policy:

Iowa State University Attendance Policy reads: “Students are expected to attend class meetings as scheduled. Each instructor sets his or her policy on class attendance, and excuses for absence from class are handled between the student and the instructor.”

Attendance in THTRE 365 Design 1 is Mandatory. Each day you are absent you will miss a significant amount of in class discussion and exercises that cannot be duplicated or repeated. Each day you are absent from this class 5 points will be deducted from the assignment we are currently working on. Any student who accumulates 4 absences you will be asked to appear before the instructors to discuss your attendance problem. At 5 absences you will be asked to drop this course.

Room Access:

Your card should be activated already to access the design studio. It is for you to use to work on your designs as long as the building is open. Please respect the studio by keeping it clean and please respect your fellow student’s property. The design studio is a space for ONLY students enrolled in the design classes to work on assignments. Design class work is the only thing to be done in the design studio! There is NO rehearsing in the Design studio. There is NO sleeping in the design studio. Students may NOT move the design tables. Students MUST throw away all food wrappers and clean tables of all crumbs and cup rings! Abuse of this room will result in the removal of all access and this room will be locked.

Note:

Students with documented disabilities that may require special accommodations to participate fully in the course are encouraged to speak with the instructor within the first week of the course so that appropriate arrangements can be made.
